

GSDI
Global Spatial Data
Infrastructure Association

EXEMPLARY SERVICE AWARD

Through his selfless dedication and efforts, Professor Harlan Onsrud:

- consistently advanced the goals and objectives of the Association from its earliest inception through development of the organization, spanning a decade of work;
- played a significant and leading management role as long-serving Executive Director and Secretary-General;
- provided exemplary support and skills in managing the many activities, SDI initiatives and projects in which the Association was engaged across the globe, especially in economically disadvantaged nations;
- provided strong management skills in helping to organize numerous GSDI World Conferences around the globe during his years of service;
- provided consistent professional support in advising the Association on important administrative, legal and policy issues;
- developed valuable knowledge sharing and capacity building initiatives within the Association; and
- did all of this while occupying a demanding professional post at his academic institution.

In recognition of his numerous contributions,
the GSDI Association hereby presents

Harlan Onsrud

with the GSDI Exemplary Service Award.

Dr David Coleman, President, GSDI Association
Presented at the GSDI 15 World Conference, 2 December 2016